

A Fool, Rupi

By Young Hwan (14)

Once upon a time there was a greedy boy named Rupi who was very strong, but he wanted to be the strongest in the world.

There was a magic apple on Mt. Diamonte. If someone eats the apple, he or she becomes very strong. But, there is only one and it is on Mt. Diamonte's peak. So, Rupi decided to climb the mountain.

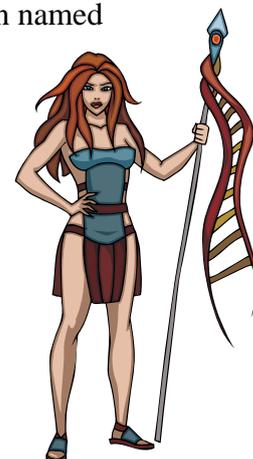

Rupi was climbing Mt. Diamonte. However, there was a big man named Sangdi who was defending Mt. Diamonte. Suddenly, Sangdi hit Rupi. Rupi said, "Why did you..." He hit Rupi again before Rupi finished talking so Rupi yelled very loudly. Sangdi flew off Mt. Diamonte.

Then Rupi was climbing again. But, there was a second man named Zoro who was defending the mountain. He had three knives. Zoro said aggressively, "Who are you?" and Rupi answered, "I'm Rupi?" Suddenly, Zoro cut Rupi's arm. After that Rupi yelled loudly, "AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!" So, Zoro flew off Mt. Diamonte.

Next, Rupi was climbing again but he met a woman named Nami who was defending the mountain, too. Nami threw Rupi to the bottom. Rupi was alive but he was very angry so he picked up the mountain and threw it.

After that Rupi realized that he must eat the apple. He said to himself, "Huk!" Now he has to travel endlessly to find the magic apple!

To be continued?

OUR HERO BRIAN

By Ji Hoon (14)

Once upon a time, our hero Brian was a prince. He had to get medicine because his father was sick, so he went to the dangerous Mt. Diamonte with his dog.

First, Prince Brian and his dog arrived at the little river and they drank water. Then, his dog heard a little sound, so his dog barked.

Next there was a big tree, but it wasn't a simple tree. It used big rocks to shoot people. So they ran, but the tree continued to throw rocks. After this, his dog bit the tree. One limb was broken but the tree hit the dog and the dog died. Brian was so sad and also angry that he pierced the tree. The tree fell. Then Brian had many injuries, so he tumbled down the mountain.

He went up again. He got the medicine, but he fell into a swamp and drowned. So his father died, too. Finally, Brian's first son became a king.

The End

