She is a hero in Korea. Everyone know her story and we learn about her when we are young. In the past, Korea was under the control of Japan. Japanes came to Korea and they kill many people, and they make new rules. For exampl, we couldn't learn Korean in the school. We had to speak Japanes. We didn't have power, everything was an unfavorable to us. However, we had a group for independence from Japan, and she was one of the member. This group was active secretly. They made a paper, and gave to the national falg to Korean. One day, they tried attack Japanes, but they were surrounded by Japanes army. She hurrahed for the independence Korea in front of them. Then she was killed by Japanes army.

There are so many people who work for independence, but she is the first woman and at that time she was just 16-17 years old. Many Korean proud of her, and we have a statue. We cannot forget her, she is in our's heart.
